Publishing Content

Uploading files to your iSpring Cloud account is a quick process either from your iSpring authoring tool or Cloud web interface. You can upload any types of content via iSpring Cloud web interface. This chapter describes types of content that can be viewed and shared in iSpring Cloud as well as gives the necessary instructions how to upload content from: