

Trimming Clips

Narrators usually leave an extra second or two of silence at the beginning or end of each slide. If the silence parts seem unnaturally long, you can trim them off before and after your audio/video clip simultaneously.

- Select just the audio/video part you want,
- Then, click Trim (or hit Ctrl+T on the keyboard).

Portions of an audio/video file outside the selected area will be removed.