Adjusting Volume

You can adjust the volume of video clip or of its particular part. To do this:

1. Click the Adjust Volume button on the toolbar. You can select just a part of the recording to adjust its volume.

!Adjust Volume button

2. A new window with the volume settings will pop up. Drag the volume slider to increase or decrease your clip volume. Use the Play button to check the volume level.

!Volume settings window

If your video clip is too quiet, you can increase the volume. However, that will also increase the background noise. Use the Remove Noise option to get the perfect volume of your video.

!Remove Noise option