

Notifications

Automated notifications in iSpring Learn is an effective way to keep users posted about new events.

With notifications which are sent out automatically, users will learn about certificate delivery, an overdue course, or an approved request to view content from the Catalog.

Administrators can be notified about new requests to view courses from the Catalog and when the number of active users exceeds the current tariff limit.

Notifications

Mark all as read

New question about the course Exploring the Universe.

Your learners are waiting for your reply.

3 hours ago

New question about the course Exploring the Universe.

Your learners are waiting for your reply.

3 hours ago

There's a new review for your course Context is King A Million Examples of Creative Ad Campaigns.

4 hours ago

You have been assigned new courses

3 days ago