

Pages

Now you can create articles with illustrations, quotes, videos, and interactive assignments right in the LMS. No technical skills are required — it's even easier than Word. Enter the headline, populate with text and images, and click Publish.

How to Create a Mobile-First Online Course: 10 Must-Follow Rules

25%

✓ Introduction

☰ 1. Break Content Into 1-2 Minute Modules

☰ 2. Track Progress

☰ 3. Find Out How Users Hold Their Devices

How to Create a Mobile-First Online Course: 10 Must-Follow Rules

E-courses made for desktops and mobile devices are two different products. Even if the desktop content adapts to the screen size, it still may not look good on your smartphone. You can't solve this problem just by scaling pictures and fonts, because mobile-first content is designed right from the start based on different principles.

E-courses made for desktops and mobile devices are two different products. Even if the desktop content adapts to the screen size, it still may not look good on your smartphone. You can't solve this problem just by scaling pictures and fonts, because mobile-first content is designed right from the start based on different principles.