Content Protection

iSpring Cloud provides an additional level of security for your files. Setting up a password will allow you to give access to your content to the trusted users only. Additionally, you can hide the Download option from viewers and prevent shared files from being downloaded.